Tour itinerary & Attractions

Sukhbaatar square is where our guide and driver will meet you at 10 am. In July 1921, in the center of Ulaanbaatar, the 'hero of the revolution' Damdin Sukhbaatar , declared Mongolia's final independence from the Chinese. The square now features a bronze statue of Sukhbaatar astride his horse. Take a city tour to Gandan Monastery where you will see huge gold plated Buddha, a symbol of Mongolian national pride and cultural revival and visit National Museum of Mongolian History, where you will see artifacts from Mongolia and Central Asia from the Stone Age to the present.

Excursion to Zaisan Hill War Memorial to get your bearings with a panoramic view of the whole city.
